TO MEASURE

Sleeve Length: Measure from center back to wrist with arms in the riding position

Waist: Measure around the fullest point of your natural waist

Chest: Measure under arms around the fullest part of the chest. Be sure to keep tape level across back and comfortably loose

Outseam: Measure along the outer leg from waist to floor, with riding footwear on

Tip: Best to have someone else measure you

Keep in mind that a number of factors need to be considered to assure a proper fit. One being your primary riding position; measure according to your motorcycle style

Primary MC Riding Position

Length of Arm

This measurement is from center neck to wrist

This measurement is in your riding position. If one arm is longer than the other, use the larger number

Hand Size

Measure around hand and close to make a fist then record measurement. If one hand is larger than the other, use the larger number
